

AP Gov 2022-23

Agenda: December 6, 2022

Catch-up Day #2:

- 1) Election Results Update:
  - House leadership change
  - Senate: What difference will the Georgia race make, given the Democrats will have control either way?
- 2) AP Exam Free Response Practice:
  - scoring of the practice questions that were handed out
- 3) Constitutional Convention:
  - look at Princeton Review p, 113: #3, 4, 6

Key Ideas (with worksheet):

- vocab flashcard: federalism
  - protections against tyranny:
    - federalism
    - separation of powers
    - checks & balances
    - rights of individuals (in the original Constitution)
    - look at Princeton Review p, 113: #5
- 4) Start to share reflections from the Spirit of 1787 packets

It is unlikely we will get this far, but we need to complete this by next week:

- 5) Federalist Papers Handouts (and Antifederalists): review:
  - Brutus 1
  - Federalist 10. 51, 70, 78

HW #13 — due Tu 12/13

- A) Memorize the main topics of each of the seven articles of the U.S. Constitution, and be prepared for a matching quiz.
- B) Read the pages in the Princeton Review on the Amendment Process, and the Bill of Rights. Take notes on the Amendment Process; you will need to know it. (I'm guessing this is somewhere around page 110 in your book.)

Make a separate flashcard for each amendment in the Bill of Rights, and memorize the topics of all of them. (You should be able to pass a matching quiz, which we will take next week.)

WRITE DOWN ANY QUESTIONS YOU HAVE! I CAN'T HELP YOU IF I DON'T KNOW WHAT YOU DON'T UNDERSTAND.

- C) Read about “cooperative federalism” v. “dual federalism” at these two sites, and add brief notes to your federalism flashcard. INCLUDE EXAMPLES from the websites.

- D) Only if you have time (otherwise, you should do this over the Winter Break):

Read “Chapter 4: Federalism” in the Crash Course book.

Add any vocab. to your flashcards.

Write down any questions you have.
