

Articles of Confederation

1781 – 1789

Preamble: Agreement was reached on the ____ day of November, in the year _____, which was in the _____ year of American independence.

(For each article, simply summarize what it states.)

Article I:

The union shall be called:

Article II:

What are the rights that are retained by the states?
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>•</li><li>•</li><li>•</li></ul>

Article III:

This joining together is characterized as a “_____,” for the following purposes:
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>•</li><li>•</li><li>•</li></ul>

Article IV:

Relations between the states are addressed in 3 parts. (Remember, you just need to summarize.)

Article V: Delegates from the states shall meet on the first Monday in _____ every year, in Congress.
Each state shall have between ____ and ____ delegates.
In Congress, how many votes does each state receive? ____
The last paragraph is basically offering _____ to members of Congress.

Article VI:

Foreign relations are spelled out. The highlights are:

Article VII:

has to do with raising _____ from the states.

Article VIII:

Explains how money will be raised to pay for war costs, and expenses, incurred for the general welfare, out of the common treasury. The amount each state owes will be:

Article IX:

Details the powers of Congress under the Articles of Confederation. Give the highlights:

Article X:

Decisions when Congress is in recess:

Article XI:

Canada??

Article XII:

Revolutionary War debt:

Article XIII:

Everybody's going to obey! And the union shall be _____.

July ____, 17__