

The Native American Movement 1950 – 2000

As you read each document, take brief notes that reflect:

- government policy towards Native Americans (including specific examples of programs, laws, etc.)
- goals and strategies of Native American leaders (including specific examples)
- any major events
- Note: While it is fine to note international efforts of the Native American movement, you should focus mostly on developments within the United States

When you are done, complete the timeline and answer the questions below. Staple your notes behind this page.

Years	5 - 10 developments (including documents) in the Native American Movement	Key Events in US History
1950
1960
1970
1980
1990
2000

1. During this time period, to what extent and in what way(s) did the U.S. government's policies towards Native Americans change (or stay the same)?

2. During this time period, what were the major goals and strategies of the Native American movement? Did these change over time? How successful were they? (Answer ALL 3 parts!)