

Political Priorities

- abortion
- health care
- environment
- taxes
- immigration
- economy
- crime
- education
- national debt
- gun control
- racism
- human rights
- gay rights
- animal rights
- drugs
- national security
- nuclear proliferation
- income inequality
- free speech
- poverty
- campaign finance
- youth rights
- consumer protection
- outsourcing
- union rights
- jobs
- religious freedom

On a piece of binder paper, list the FIVE issues that are the most important, in your opinion. (If you have ideas that are not listed here, it is fine to write them instead.) Of those five, put a star next to your #1 choice.

Then, write a long paragraph explaining why your #1 choice is the most important of all. (Remember to use pen.)
