

Instructions for WWI & WWII Brochures
 (2 brochures - each the same)

Take a single piece of paper, turn it horizontally, and fold it into three panels.

Outside panels (when opened up):

End of the War (final events; terms; treaties)	Legacy of the War (within the U.S.)	The United States in World War I / II (years) (put a picture that represents)
Controversies over the end of the war; reaction at home	Legacy of the War (role of the U.S. in the world)	something unique about the U.S. in this war Your Name Date Period

Inside panels (when opened up):

Initial U.S. Efforts to Remain Neutral	Role of the U.S. in the War	The Home Front (how society was affected by the war)
Why we ultimately entered the war (list contributing factors)	Experiences of Women & Minorities in the War	Specific Impact on Women & Minorities